4.2 With service providers: we share data with vendors who support our operations, such as cloud hosting providers, Ola Maps (routing and navigation), Google Firebase (analytics, crash reporting and push notifications), payment processing partners, and AI-assisted support-chat providers. These providers may access only the data needed to perform their function for gogoo.

4.3 With authorities: we may disclose information to government, regulatory or law-enforcement bodies where required under Applicable Law, or in good faith to prevent fraud, protect safety, or comply with a legal process.
